A settlement has been reached in a class action alleging that The TJX Companies, Inc., T.J. Maxx of CA, LLC, Marshalls of CA, LLC, and HomeGoods, Inc. (“TJX”) used false or misleading Compare At pricing advertisements. TJX denies that it used false price comparison advertising or that it has done anything wrong. The Court has not decided who is right.

You are included in the settlement as a “Class Member” if you purchased one or more items from a T.J. Maxx, Marshalls, or HomeGoods store in California between July 17, 2011 and December 6, 2017, with a TJX price tag that included a Compare At price, and you have not received a refund or credit for all of your purchases. If you are eligible, you may be able to receive a store credit (“Merchandise Credit”) that may be used toward purchases in any T.J. Maxx, Marshalls, or HomeGoods store in California or be redeemed for cash in an amount equal to 75% of the original value of the Merchandise Credit. More than one Merchandise Credit may be used at a time and they may be used in conjunction with other promotional discounts that are otherwise available with the use of gift cards or merchandise credits. Merchandise Credits do not expire. You may give your Merchandise Credit to someone else, but they cannot be resold. You may exchange Merchandise Credits for cash in an amount equal to 75% of the Merchandise Credit at the time of its issuance, for up to one year after issuance, by returning the Merchandise Credit to the Claims Administrator unused. Merchandise Credits that have been used to make a purchase are not redeemable for cash.

The Merchandise Credits will be paid from what remains of a $8,500,000 settlement fund after deducting the costs of administering the settlement (up to $1,000,000), court-approved attorneys’ fees of up to 25% of the settlement fund ($2,125,000), and costs (up to $50,000), and payments to the Class Representatives (up to $7,500 per Class Representative for a total of $30,000). The amount of the Merchandise Credit will be determined by dividing the remainder of the settlement fund among the total number of Class Members who submit valid claims.

To receive the Merchandise Credit, you must file a claim by April 9, 2018. Claim Forms may be submitted online at www.TJXSettlement.com, printed from the website and mailed to the address on the form, or obtained by calling 1-855-225-9282.

If you file a claim or do nothing and the Court approves the settlement, you will give up your right to sue TJX for any of the claims released by this settlement. If you do not want to receive a Merchandise Credit, but you want to keep your right to sue TJX individually for the same claims resolved by this settlement, you must exclude yourself by April 9, 2018. If you do not exclude yourself from the settlement, you may object and notify the Court that you or your lawyer intends to appear at the Court's fairness hearing. Objections and intentions to appear are due and must be filed with the Court no later than April 9, 2018. For more information, including the detailed Notice and Settlement Agreement, call or go to www.TJXSettlement.com.

The Court will hold a hearing on May 14, 2018 to determine whether to approve the settlement; how much to award in fees and costs to Class Counsel; and how much to award the Class Representatives. You or your attorney may attend, but you don't have to. The date of the hearing may change without further notice, so please check www.TJXSettlement.com for updates.
